ALADDIN'S ENDURANCE STAKES.

As if to make amends for the mediocre card of the day before the Hawthorne management presented a cracking good set of seven races yesterday, among them being the ever popular steeplechase affair. The crowd was probably the largest of the week and as has been the rule for the last week or so ideal racing conditions prevailed.

The feature event of the day was the Endurance Stakes, a handicap sweepstakes for two-year-olds at one mile with $1,000 added. South Trimble was hit upon by the talent as the best of the five babies that faced the barrier, being held at 11 to 5. He was conceding much weight to everything in the race but Arian and failed to make good although finishing a good second. Aladdin, ridden cleverly by Coburn, proved to be much the best at the end winning quite easily. The Giver, off poorly, was hustled to the front after passing the first turn and held a comfortable lead up to the last eighth where he began to show signs of distress and began propping badly. Aladdin, which had been nursed carefully up to this point, easily took the lead and won without much effort by a length and a half from South Trimble which finished with his usual burst of speed at the end and beat the exhausted The Giver the same distance for second place. Miracle II. ran a fairly good race. Arian was never a contender.

The steeplechase proved to be an easy matter for Dick Furber, he winning in an easy gallop by eight lengths from Eva Moe, she beating Populist ten for second place. Sainly led by a big margin up to the tenth jump where he tired so badly that he fell over it heavily, allowing Dick Furber to take command, the latter never being headed thereafter. Captain Conover fell over the last jump. He was closing up fast at the time. Becky Rolfe could hardly get up a strong gallop at any part of the route.

Silurian won the day's opener, a dash of one mile, more on his own courage than because of any help from Gormley. He was almost left at the post, but made up ground gradually when he got into his stride, passing his field one by one and getting clear of it at the last eighth. He appeared to be winning easily thereafter, but Little Elkin came with a surprising rush at the end, causing Gormley to ride him out to the last ounce to win by a neck. Fantasy was third one and a half lengths away. Monos finished strongly and about ran his race. In the light of his last previous showing Little Elkin ran a wonderful and suddenly improved race.

As was expected by the talent, Gonfalon took the second race, a free handicap for all ages at seven furlongs, but his victory was due more to Walsh's weak finish on Toah than to his own superiority. Maggie Davis led, as was to be expected, for six furlongs, where she had enough and Toah assumed command. Along about the last eighth post Coburn brought up Gonfalon with a rush and got on even terms with Toah in the last one hundred yards. In a ding dong finish, in which Coburn simply played with Walsh, the former succeeded in throwing Gonfalon over the line first by a nose. Maggie Davis finished third, a length away. She was lucky to finish in this position, however, as Ben Battle was closing up fast on her in the last few strides and would have been third in another stride. Uledi ran disappointingly and failed to show the speed he displayed in his second to McChesney some days before. Haviland was never a serious contender, the high rate of speed of the race being beyond his capacity.

Charley O'Brien was supposed to hold a mortgage on the fifth race, a free handicap for all ages at one and an eighth miles, but the best he could do was to run second to Odnor which beat him in a desperate drive on the post by a nose. Strangest finished third two lengths back. O'Brien showed all his well known speed for a mile where Odnor closed up on him and the two fought it out hammer and tongs to the line, Odnor prevailing at the end of a very fast race. Strangest about ran his best race. Searcher, fairly well up for seven furlongs, died away fast in the last quarter. Conundrum ran the best race of his career.

Tommy Foster's sudden rejuvenation from his miserable showing of September 23 was indeed edifying. He was simply a different animal yesterday than on the foregoing occasion—was very speedy and simply smothered his field. He led from flag dip to finish, winning as his rider pleased by almost three lengths from Emathion, which beat Rose Plume a neck for second place. Emathion ran in much improved form and bears watching from now on. Rose Plume finished with resolution and would have been second in a few more strides. Prestorius and Hermie showed early speed. The rest were never contenders.

The talent could see nothing but Leo Newell with Coburn up in the last race, a dash once around the circle. He rewarded the confidence placed in him by winning quite easily at the end after a sharp tilt with Julia Junkin in the last eighth. He crossed the line two lengths in front of her, while she beat Benckart a short head for second place. The latter came fast at the end and would have beaten her in a stride or two. He is a fast gelding and will do to watch from now on. Eva Rice showed speed for six furlongs. The others might just as well have remained in their stables.

August 21 Sam Hildreth's Telamon won a mile dash at Hawthorne, Argregor finishing second, Flying Torpedo third and Rasselas fourth. At some time subsequently C. T. Boots, owner of Argregor, filed an objection on the ground that Telamon was not eligible to start in the race in question. On examination the judges found that he was right and yesterday rendered a decision disqualifying Telamon and giving the race to Argregor with Flying Torpedo second and Rasselas third. There is a necessary implication of gross carelessness to be located somewhere.

Charles Green, formerly president of the St. Louis Fair Association, was a visitor at the track yesterday.

W. E. Cotton and C. M. Watters were each fined $10 yesterday for violation of the rules governing the paddock.

Jockey Gaddy, who rode Sainly in the steeplechase, had his wrist broken when his mount fell.

A NEW STARTING GATE.

Truly nothing is being allowed to pass these days, which may in the slightest degree be an improvement on any of the existing surroundings of racing. Great a boon as the starting barrier has been in the saving of time (shown by the time of the last race as compared with ten years ago) on the tracks of the present day it has not been accepted as entirely successful by many horsemen. Of late this has been rather intensified by the rattle-headed boys at the post being so anxious to get off in front that they have frequently dashed through the old strip of webbing tangling up the horse, several times being dragged bodily from the saddle, and once or twice caught round the neck, which gave them a good idea of the horrors of decapitation by inches.

Thus, an improvement was looked for, and has evidently been found, to some extent, in the barrier used at Sheepshead during the current Winner—Ch. c, by Goldfinch—La Belle Juive. Went to post at 2:15. At post 7 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Gold Seeker and Golden Cottage quickly drew out and ran as a team to the far turn, where Gold Seeker pulled to the front, winning a good race without urging. He is a tremendously fast colt but somewhat undersized. Caughnawaga put up a very game fight at the finish and will show to much better advantage in strong and vigorous hands. Golden Cottage followed the winner's terrific early pace stoutly and displayed unexpected gameness at the end. Highlander probably favors a heavy track. Namtor showed improvement, closing a gap, and was going well at the end. Peninsula and Andy Williams had no chance at the start.

Scratched—28401 King Hanover, 124; 28294 Major Daingerfield, 110; 28230 Fair Knight, 109; 28399 Ben Howard, 107; 28474 Father Wentker, 107; 28452 Feme Sole, 103.

Winner—Br. f, by Chorister—Hope On. Went to post at 2:45. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Lady Chorister had a lot of reserve speed almost throughout but too much use was made of her under poor handling and she was tiring at the end. Little Daisy closed up with a great rush in the stretch and just failed to get up. Intrusive was easily outrun, even in the first half, by the winner and his race was bad. Fatalist ran up to his best form. Armor got off badly and is a bad horse.

Scratched—28429 Potente, 100.

Lady Chorister, show, 7 to 10. Little Daisy, show, 7 to 10.

Time, 4:51.

Winner—Ch. g, by Meddler—Zegri. Went to post at 3:10. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Zinziber was best. Cleverly handled, he trailed his field for the first mile, then went to the front with ease and is a superior all around steeplechaser. Jessie S. was the only contender and is speedy on the flat and a safe jumper. Miss Mitchell ran a remarkably good race through the field and will be heard from. Sir Hubert ran badly. Last Cord tired at the end of a mile and a quarter. Cheesemitt lost many lengths when she struck the Liverpool. Cock Robin was leading the field and jumping like a bird, when he bolted on the turn. His bad front legs hurt him evidently.

Scratched—28324 Curfew Bell, 130; 28292 Orman, 144.

Leonid finished with a tremendous rush. Setauket, Ascension, Reformer and Presumption all made up much ground from a bad start. Zirl and Eddie Busch were tiring at the end. Except the first three or four the others had no chance at the start.

A NEW STARTING GATE.

meeting. It is simple, quick, easily dodged and apparently effective.

The mechanism consists of two uprights, one each side of the track, on each side of which is balanced a rigid arm held parallel to the course over which the horses run. From the lower end of this stretches what might be an extra light tennis net, which is held fairly taught by guys or leaders running up a main guy or cord which runs from rigid pole to pole parallel with the net, but from the higher end. The balance of the device is perfect and it is operated by two men, one at each side of the track, who hold a pulley rope in their hands. The slightest pull sends the barrier upward and outward from the moving horses, and it responds immediately. Should a wild horse charge the obstacle it will not catch the boy or horse, or break, but will slide over his neck.

The starter holds an electric button in his hand, and when the gong sounds the men haul on the pulleys, and the barrier flies up. So far as seen it is a distinct improvement on the old plan, obviates entanglements and saves time in refixing the broken webbing, even if not materially better all around.—Spirit of the Times.

Winner—B. f. by Candemas—Duchess of Towers.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 8 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second easily. Tower of Candles broke flatfooted but the marvelous flight of speed she possessed enabled her to take the lead in the first sixteenth and thereafter she was practically easing up. Sadducee ran well and finished strongly. Bastile is a fast horse but touched in the wind. Mayor Gilroy closed a gap and was gaining at the end. Glennellie, off flying, showed speed but quit badly in the last quarter and was probably short. The start practically settled more than half the field. Scratched—28131 Templeton, 104; 27470 Sweet Tooth, 109; (28121) Contend, 106; 28451 Disturber, 103.

Overweights—Glennellie, 3 pounds.
Tower of Candles, show, 3 to 5. Sadducee, show, 3 to 5. Bastile, show, 20 to 1. Glennellie, show, 4 to 5.

EPSOM DERBY FORFEITS.

The authorities at Epsom mixed up matters in connection with the Derby of next year in a way that resulted in the imposition of a fine of $2,500 by the autocratic English Jockey Club. The case is thus set forth in a recent letter to the Thoroughbred Record:

Mention of Lavengro naturally leads up to the muddle in connection with next year's Derby. Hitherto there was a condition stating that a minor forfeit could be paid for the Derby on the first Tuesday in January of the previous year, when the horses nominated became two-year-olds. The advertised conditions of the 1902 Derby included this time honored clause and a number of the animals which were nominated as yearlings last year accordingly paid the minor forfeit on the first Tuesday in January this year. Amongst them was Lavengro, who at that time was not known to be a good one. Now, unfortunately for the Epsom executive, the Jockey Club passed a rule in 1899, which came into operation on January 1, 1900, to the effect that "no declaration" of forfeit affecting yearlings or two-year-olds shall be fixed to be made between the second Tuesday in October, when they are yearlings and the last Tuesday in March in the following year. The 1902 Derby forfeit being fixed for the first Tuesday in January this year, was, according to the new rule, clearly illegal, and Mr. Sievier has claimed to have Lavengro reinstated, adding that had the forfeit been fixed for the last Tuesday in March, which is the proper date, Lavengro would have been allowed to remain in the race, as his trainer had discovered him to be a good one some time between the first Tuesday in January and the end of March. The discovery that the conditions of the race were illegal opened up all sorts of possibilities of a more or less unpleasant nature to the Epsom executive, and although it seems hard lines for Mr. Sievier, the Jockey Club have undoubtedly done the best thing in ruling that the conditions must stand, although not in accordance with the Rules of Racing, and that all animals for which forfeit was paid in January must be regarded as struck out. In thus ruling, the stewards of the Jockey Club are undoubtedly overruling their own laws, but if they had allowed Mr. Sievier's claim and reinstated Lavengro, numerous other owners who had left their animals in January, would without doubt claim to have them struck out on payment of the minor forfeit, on the ground that between the beginning of January and the end of March, their trainers had discovered them to be no good. This would cause serious loss to the Epsom people who would in that event have to make up a lot of the Derby stake of $50,000 out of their own funds. Their conditions were carelessly drawn up no doubt, and equally care is that Mr. Sievier might appeal to law with some certainty of getting his colt reinstated and his next move in the matter is awaited with much eagerness. As Lavengro has been beaten however, it is probable that Mr. Sievier will accept the situation in a philosophical spirit and bow to the Jockey Club's decision.

Winner—Br. g. by Belvidere—Virgie D.
Went to post at 2:00. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Silurian had to be the best to win as Gormley had him almost hopelessly beaten off before the first eighth had been run. The horse gradually made up ground thereafter and got clear of his field in the last eighth but had to be hustled out at the end to stall off Little Elkin's strong bid. He improved quickly and ran a splendid race. He closed up fast and strongly in the last eighth. Fantasy came with a rush at the end after making up ground in the last quarter. Monos failed to respond when called upon by Coburn. Frelinghuisen and J. H. Barnes showed speed for a half mile.

Scratched—28447 John Grigsby, 103; 28318 Canova, 103.
Overweights—Chauncey Fisher, 3 pounds.
Silurian, show, 1 to 5. Little Elkin, show, 11 to 5. Fantasy, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Fonso—Falerna.
Went to post at 2:35. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Gonfalon moved up fast while coming down the last eighth, but had to be driven to the limit to outfoot Toah in the closing strides. Walsh was too weak to do the latter justice or else he would have won. Maggie Davis had enough when a furlong out and just lasted long enough to get her head over the line in front of Ben Battle. The latter finished strongly and altogether ran a good race. Uledi's race was rather disappointing. She tired badly in the run in. Haviland was outpaced throughout.
Overweights—Uledi, 1 pound.
Gonfalon, show, 1 to 4. Toah, show, 6 to 5. Maggie Davis, show, 4 to 5. Uledi, show, 11 to 20.

Winner—Br. c. by Fordham—Duchess Caroline.
Went to post at 3:05. Off at the first break. Start good. Won in a canter; second the same. Dick Furber moved up fast when nearing the tenth jump and when Saintly fell took an easy command, which he held to the end. Eva Moe was easily the best of the others. Populist ran a dull race and is capable of a better showing. Captain Conover was closing fast when he fell over the last jump. Saintly was ready to drop from exhaustion when he went down.
Overweights—Saintly, 2 1/2 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by St. George—Merry Wise.
Went to post at 3:35. Off at the first break. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Aladdin was best at the weights, was nursed along cleverly until turning for home, where he was called upon and came away without much trouble. South Trimble, as usual, came with a rush at the end, but had no chance to beat the winner. The Giver had enough when a furlong out. Miracle II. began to tire rapidly in the last sixteenth. Arian was always outrun.

Went to post at 4:00. Off at the first break. Start fair. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Odnor laid always second to the last eighth where he closed up on Charley O'Brien and out-gamed him to the wire. The latter ran right to the mark but faltered slightly in the closing strides. Strangest closed up some ground in the last quarter and about ran his race. Searcher quit badly in the last eighth. Conundrum ran the best race of his career.

Winner—Ch. c. by Fonso—Recess.
Went to post at 4:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driven out. Tommy Foster improved with a suddenness that was inspiring and simply smothered his field, winning as his rider pleased. Emathion ran in improved form but was fading fast at the end and would have lost second place in a stride or two to Rose Plume. The latter finished resolutely. He was messed about in the early part of the race. Preztor showed speed for five furlongs but fell away beaten when the rub came. Huzzah was right there for five eighths.
